

Schwartz 1049
The New York Times

229 WEST 43RD STREET
NEW YORK, N. Y. 10036

The New York Times
Times Square

March 28, 1970

Dear Josh,

Why don't you write me directly about my editorials? * But of course you don't have to send me your ~~editorials~~ columns since I read them religiously

Regards

Harry

* Fred is a faithful - but in this case unnecessary - intermediary.

Harry SCHWARTZ

APR 13 1970

Dear Harry--

I'm delighted to write directly; but you'll have to tell me the code by which I can tell who is the author. I don't know as much as you think about how the Ed. Board is organized. (And I would be curious to have some idea of who's who and who likely writes on what.) I had guessed that Fred might have written that piece himself; which only goes to show... how little I know. Should I assume that you are the principal editorial-writer on health-related subjects?

Sincerely,

Joshua